Mr. John Keith Hebert
5917 Big Horn View Street
North Las Vegas, NV 89031

Dear Mr. Hebert:

This letter serves as notification of the Office of Inspector General's (OIG's) determination on your allegation of reprisal under the applicable laws and regulations relating to whistleblower protections.

We reviewed your allegation, which was filed with this Office on 10 November 2015 and again on 24 June 2016, and determined that it does not qualify for whistleblower protections afforded under Intelligence Community Directive (ICD) 120. Under ICD 120, whistleblower reprisal protections are only extended to contractors with regard to their security clearances, but not to personnel matters. Our review determined that, although you may be covered by the applicable regulations because you were a contractor at the time of your disclosure, your security clearances were not affected as a result of your disclosure.

We further determined that, based on the information you provided, portions of your disclosure are potentially an Office of Equal Employment Opportunity (OEEEO) matter. OEEEO matters are not within OIG jurisdiction and, as such, your concern would be better addressed to OEEEO or its equivalent, with your employer. The contact number for OEEEO is (703)-860-2094.

You have 15 business days after receipt of this notification to submit any additional information to OIG regarding this matter. Upon receipt, OIG will evaluate any new information and determine if further review is warranted. If after 15 business days you have not provided additional information or if the additional information did not warrant further review, this matter will be closed by this Office.

Victim Impact Statement

29 JUL 2016

In closing, I would like to mention that it took me eight "8" months to define my injury and realize what was happening to me. My panic attacks are what helped me remember details of what happened to me. My panic attacks are overwhelming to the point I vomit and cry at the same time. Have you ever threw up and cried at the same time?? I do, constantly for over the past year now. This gives me a lot of pain and is very difficult to live with and is a constant reminder of what I was put through.

I knew that I kept losing more and more of my Freedoms on every deployment, but that was not enough for them. They then combined their Retaliatory Management Techniques with nearby Car Bombs... and that eventually Defeated me... and they Won... and I Lost... and then I Lost Myself...

I lost my-"SELF"

I Lost my Dignity

I lost my Complete Trust in others

I lost my Positive Mindset that I use to have

I lost All of my Personal Interest like my cars, my motorcycle, going out, and even dating

I even lost my Emotional Stability and I now cry in front of complete strangers

I'm Constantly Forgetful and I feel Completely Hopeless

I'm in Despair and in Distress on a daily basis

I have Frustration and I'm Very Irritated and Annoyed

I Hurt and I'm Still in Shock

I'm Completely Lost and I'm All Alone

I'm Very Scared and I feel Totally Vulnerable

I feel Overly Dominated and So Ashamed

I'm Completely Humiliated

I feel Very Violated and So Disturbed

And what's Worse is that I Mostly feel Very Disappointed in Myself

Because they robbed me of my Self-Esteem

Because they robbed me of my Self-Worth

It's Impossible to live my life like this never happened

Because I lost my Corporation and my Business

I lost my Career

I lost my Livelihood

My Credit is ruined and I'm now losing my House, my Car, and my Motorcycle

My life has been totally Shattered and Destroyed

I'm a different person now and I do Not like the person I now am

What Should I Do??

What Can I Do??

What can anyone do when their Government and Co-workers Defeats and Betrays them like this

Yes... I Forgive them All because it's the Right thing to do

But I'll Never Forget

And THAT'S my Problem

I Can't Forget

I want to Run Away from all of this and I want to Run Away from Myself

I no longer feel comfortable living with myself

And it's That... It's That, that I have to live with Forever

Dear Mr. Hebert:

I have received your letters of July 18, 25, 29, and August 5 and 12, 2016. Although your letters refer to torture and war crimes, your allegations appear to involve personnel issues that do not meet the elements needed to establish torture or war crimes under federal law. Notice of our Plan to Sell Property

Reference: Secured Consumer Loan
Borrower: JOHN K HEBERT
Loan # ending in: 5750

We have your 2005 MERCEDES BENZ because you broke promises in our agreement.

We will sell 2005 MERCEDES BENZ at private sale sometime after September 22, 2016. A sale could include a lease or license.

The money that we get from the sale (after paying our costs) will reduce the amount you owe. If we get less money than you owe, you will still owe us the difference. If we get more money than you owe, you will get the extra money, unless we must pay it to someone else.

You can get the property back at any time before we sell it by paying us the full amount you owe (not just the past due payments), including our expenses. To learn the exact amount you must pay, call us at 1-800-668-6873.

If you want us to explain to you how we have figured the amount that you owe us, you may call us at 1-800-668-6873, or write us at USAA Federal Savings Bank, 10750 McDermott Freeway, San Antonio, TX 78288-0548 and request a written explanation.

If you need more information about the sale, call us at 1-800-668-6873 or write us at USAA Federal Savings Bank, 10750 McDermott Freeway, San Antonio, TX 78288-0548.

Re: John Hebert

John is a client here at Healing Minds Behavioral Health Services and has been receiving services since January 27, 2016.

Mr. Hebert is currently being treated for Adjustment Disorder with Mixed Anxiety and Depressed Mood and Posttraumatic Stress Disorder.

Mr. Hebert was in treatment on a bi-monthly basis and was last seen on December 8, 2016.

Mr. Hebert was learning how to deal with his anxiety, betrayal, frustration and anger issues and was learning coping techniques and interventions to help in identifying his triggers and not readily become reactive to a situation or problems.

Clinical summary of assessment findings and identification of current patient:

Client is a 44 year old Caucasian male. Client reported symptoms of anxiety, depression and PTSD. Client reported that he served 2 years in the military as a marine. Client stated that he was release after having a major foot injury that prevented him from continuing his duties as an officer. Client reported that he worked and contracted with a security company as part of the government for 10 years as a private security contractor and became a whistle blower. Client reported that his last assignment was in Afghanistan where he witnessed a bomb explosion that killed several people. Client reported that since that casualty, he was being harassed by that agency for up to 2 years; loss his driving privilege, demoted twice and eventually losing his job. Client stated that he felt betrayed, has lack of trust, is angry, upset and embarrass in what happened to him

Client also stated that he is under enormous amount of stress, anxiety, is socially withdrawn, paranoid on a daily basis while living on the edge and only leaves the house to go to the gym or the grocery store. Client reported that his sleeping is interrupted with only 3 hours of sleep daily and is barely eating. Client is now on medication to help him to deal and cope with both his anxiety and depressive symptoms and his ability to sleep. Client reported that all he wants is to have his rights and privileges for his benefits restored by the government, soon so that he can move on with his life.

Description: In prior therapy sessions, the client and therapist role played some emotional and feeling cards on sharing his thoughts, feelings and emotions on each card that he chose and how much time did he focused on each of them during the therapy session. Client started with betrayal and discussed how being betrayed by both the government and the agency was hurtful toward him and he takes it personally because he feels that his rights were violated and betrayed. Client stated that he spend hours daily thinking about how he was betrayed by both the government and the agency he worked for. Client next chose the card on paranoia. Client shared how he becomes paranoid in his daily life and whenever he interacts or come in contact with other people, he is uncomfortable and not at ease. Client stated that he experiences this especially when he is out in the community. Client chose the card on anger. Client shared that he becomes angry and frustrated every time he thinks about what happened to him by the government and the agency he worked for. Client states that there are triggers associated with the anger.

Assessment: Therapist observed that the client struggles with his feelings and emotions, ability to interact with others, go into the community, paranoid in social settings, is upset and angry just by thinking about what happened to him and how it continues to make his life more difficult to governed and managed on a daily basis. Client continues to struggles with the triggers of hearing plane flying over his head and the noise from the garbage truck early in the morning. Therapist reminded the client to discuss increasing the milligrams on the medication with his doctor, which he was able to get done, and, also, to continue using coping techniques and breathing exercises when thinking about leaving the house, be around others and challenging his fears when planes fly above him and drown out the noise from the garbage truck.

Plan: Client will continue to journal his anxiety and stress levels on a daily and remember bring to therapy to discuss. Also, continue to use coping techniques and breathing exercises when leaving the house and going into the community.

Dear Mr. Hebert:

This is in response to your letter to our office, alleging a civil rights violation.

The Criminal Section of the Civil Rights Division is responsible for enforcing federal criminal civil rights statutes. Much of our enforcement activity relates to the investigation and prosecution of deprivations of civil rights under color of law. These matters generally involve allegations of excessive physical force or sexual abuse by law enforcement officers.

We have carefully reviewed the information that you furnished. However, we have concluded that your complaint does not involve prosecutable violations of federal criminal civil rights statutes. This is not a judgment on the truth or merit of your complaint; it is simply to inform you that this is not the type of case that this office prosecutes. U.S. Department of Justice

Office of the Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

APR 07 2017

The Honorable Dean Heller
United States Senate
8930 West Sunset Road, Suite 230
Las Vegas, NV 89148

Dear Senator Heller:

This responds to your letter to the Deputy Assistant Attorney General, dated January 5, 2017, forwarding correspondence from your constituent, Mr. John Hebert. In your letter, you state that Mr. Hebert alleges that the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and defense contractor "Academi" have tortured and conspired to torture Mr. Hebert. Mr. Hebert also alleges obstruction of justice by the CIA and Department of Justice. From the attached correspondence, it appears that Mr. Hebert has previously contacted the CIA's Office of Inspector General and the Human Rights and Special Prosecution Section of the Department of Justice's Criminal Division. It also appears someone may have submitted a civil complaint to the Special Litigation Section of the Department of Justice's Civil Rights Division. You request a "suspense date" and/or any reports completed by the Department of Justice with regard to Mr. Hebert's complaints. We apologize for the delay in responding to your letter.

Under the Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1997 (CRIPA), the Special Litigation Section of the Department's Civil Rights Division can investigate complaints concerning conditions in state or locally operated prisons, jails, and correctional facilities, including allegations of sexual abuse or harassment. When a "pattern or practice" or systemic deprivation of constitutional rights exists, we have the authority to initiate civil action against state or local officials to remedy the unlawful conditions.

The Special Litigation Section also has the authority, pursuant to the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, 42 U.S.C. § 14141, to seek relief for a pattern or practice of conduct by those with responsibility for the administration of juvenile justice or the incarceration of juveniles that deprives persons of rights, privileges, or immunities secured or protected by the Constitution or federal laws.

Unfortunately, our authority under CRIPA and § 14141 does not extend to investigating incidents that affect only a single individual. Nor are we authorized to seek relief for, or to represent, a specific person. We do not have jurisdiction over the activities of the CIA or associated defense contractors. We are not aware of any reports related to Mr. Hebert's complaints.

The Honorable Dean Heller

Jupiter

Jupiter (n.)

also Juppiter, c. 1200, "supreme deity of the ancient Romans," from Latin Iupeter, Iupiter, Iuppiter, "Jove, god of the sky and chief of the gods," from PIE dyeu-peter-* "god-father" (originally vocative, "the name naturally occurring most frequently in invocations" [Tucker]), from deiw-os* "god" (from root dyeu-* "to shine," in derivatives "sky, heaven, god") + peter "father" in the sense of "male head of a household" (see father (n.)).

The Latin forms Diespiter, Dispiter ... together with the word dies 'day' point to the generalization of a stem diē-*, whereas Iupiter, Iovis reflect [Proto-Italic] djow-*. These can be derived from a single PIE paradigm for '(god of the) sky, day-light', which phonetically split in two in [Proto-Italic] and yielded two new stems with semantic specialization. [de Vaan]

Compare Greek Zeus pater, vocative of Zeus pater "Father Zeus;" Sanskrit Dyaus pitar "heavenly father." As the name of the brightest of the superior planets from late 13c. in English, from Latin (Iovis stella). The Latin word also meant "heaven, sky, air," hence sub Iove "in the open air." As god of the sky he was considered to be the originator of weather, hence Jupiter Pluvius "Jupiter as dispenser of rain" (1704), used jocularly from mid-19c.

THE WARS OF MAN

In the spring of 1947, a shepherd boy searching for a lost sheep in the barren cliffs overlooking the Dead Sea, discovered a cave that contained Hebrew scrolls hidden inside earthenware jars. Those and other scrolls found in the area in subsequent years collectively spoken of as the Dead Sea Scrollshad lain undisturbed for nearly two thousand years, carefully wrapped and hidden away during the turbulent years when Judea challenged the might of the Roman empire.

Was this part of the official library of Jerusalem, carted away to safety before the city and its temple fell in A.D. 70, oras most scholars assumea library of the Essenes, a sect of hermits with messianic preoccupations? The opinions are divided, for the library contained both traditional biblical texts as well as writings dealing with the sect's customs, organization, andbeliefs.

One of the longest and most complete scrolls, and perhaps the most dramatic, deals with a future war, a kind of Final War. Titled by scholars The War of the Sons of Light Against the Sons of Darkness, it envisages spreading warfarelocal battles that will first involve Judea's immediate neighbors, which shall increase in ferocity and scope until the whole ancient world would be engulfed: "The first engagement of the Sons of Light against the Sons of Darkness, that is against the army of Belial, shall be an attack upon the troops of Edom, Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistine area; then upon that of the Kittians of Assyria; and upon those violators of the Covenant who give them aid. . . ." And after those battles, "they shall advance upon the Kittians of Egypt" and "in due time . . . against the kings of the north."

In this War of Men, the scroll prophesied, the God of Israel shall take an active role:

On the day the Kittians fall, there shall be mighty combat and carnage, in the presence of the God of Israel;

For that is the day which He appointed of old for the final battle against the Sons of Darkness.

The Prophet Ezekiel had already prophesied the Last Battle, "in the latter days," involving Gog and Magog, in which the Lord himself shall "smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thine right hand." But the Dead Sea scroll went further, foreseeing the actual participation of many gods in the battles, engaged in combat side by side with mortal men:

On that day, the Company of the Divine and the Congregation of the Mortals shall engage side by side in combat and carnage.

The Sons of Light shall battle against the Sons of Darkness with a show of godlike might, amid uproarious tumult, amid the war cries of gods and men.

Though Crusaders, Saracens, and countless others in historical times have gone to war "in the name of God," the belief that in a war to come the Lord himself shall be actually present on the battlefield, and that gods and men would fight side by side, sounds as fantasy, to be treated allegorically at best. Yet it is not as extraordinary a notion as it may appear to be, for in earlier times, it was indeed believed that the Wars of Men were not only decreed by the gods but were also fought with the gods' active participation.

One of the most romanticized wars, when "love had launched a thousand ships," was the War of Troy, between the Achaean Greeks and the Trojans, it was, know we not, launched by the Greeks to force the Trojans to return the beautiful Helen to her lawful spouse. Yet an epic Greek tale, the Kypria, represented the war as a premeditated scheme by the great god Zeus:

There was a time when thousands upon thousands of men encumbered the broad bosom of the Earth. And having pity on them, Zeus in his great wisdom resolved to lighten Earth's burden.

So he caused the strife at Ilion (Troy) to that end; that through death he might make a void in the race of men.

Homer, the Greek storyteller who related the war's events in the Iliad, blamed the whim of the gods for instigating the conflict and for turning and twisting it to its ultimate major proportions. Acting directly and indirectly, sometimes seen and sometimes unseen, the various gods nudged the principal actors of this human drama to their fates. And behind it all was Jove (Jupiter/Zeus): "While the

ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR LEAVE TO WITHDRAW AS COUNSEL

This is an action for benefits under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 33 U.S.C. §§ 901 et seq., as extended by the Defense Base Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1651 et seq. It was initiated with the Office of Administrative Law Judges on August 31, 2017, when it was referred for hearing by the District Director of the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs and is currently in the San Francisco District Office awaiting assignment to a judge for hearing in Las Vegas, Nevada. On October 16, 2017, Taylor Hanks, Esq. of The Turley & Mara Law Firm, APLC, the law firm identified in the referral as representing Claimant, filed a Motion for Leave to Withdraw as Counsel.¹

29 C.F.R. § 18.22(e) allows for the withdrawal of counsel upon motion. "The motion must state that notice of the withdrawal has been given to the party, client, or representative. The judge may deny a representative's motion to withdraw when necessary to avoid undue delay or prejudice to the rights of a party." Though the motion does not explicitly state that prior notice was given to Claimant, given that there are irreconcilable differences and the motion to withdraw

¹ The motion is dated August 31, 2017, and does not contain the OALJ Numbers for this case, since at that time no numbers had been assigned. No previous filings of this motion are present in the case file or reflected on the electronic docket. It is likely that any such filings were misplaced in the process of transferring the case from OWCP to OALJ and the docketing process, which was not completed until September 6, 2017, was originally served on August 31, 2017, by this point Claimant has been given ample notice of the request. In addition, at this early stage, there is little risk of any delay or prejudice.

Item 102

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that the Motion for Leave to Withdraw as Counsel is GRANTED.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE: REMAND

This is a claim for benefits under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 33 U.S.C. §§ 901 et seq., as extended by the Defense Base Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1651 et seq. ("Longshore Act"). It was referred to the Office of Administrative Law Judges ("OALJ") by the District Director of the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs ("OWCP") on August 31, 2017, after Claimant requested a formal hearing. It is currently in the San Francisco District Office of OALJ awaiting assignment to a judge for hearing in Las Vegas, Nevada. On October 16, 2017, I granted a motion by Taylor Hanks, Esq. for leave to withdraw as counsel for Claimant.

On November 7, 2017, Respondents filed a Motion to Remand this case to OWCP. Respondents represent that their efforts to communicate with Claimant regarding potential settlement of this matter have been unsuccessful and that Claimant has opted to pursue criminal complaints against Respondents, his former counsel, and Respondents' counsel. They contend that in its current posture this matter cannot be moved toward hearing and ask that it be remanded to OWCP "so that Claimant can possibly retain new counsel as it pertains to this claim and adequately prepare his claim for formal hearing or settlement and Employer and Carrier can be afforded opportunity to determine its opposing counsel."

Item 103

Under the OALJ Rules of Practice and Procedure, responses to motions are due 14 days after the motion is served. 29 C.F.R. § 18.33(d). Time to respond is extended by three days if service is made by U.S. mail. 29 C.F.R. § 18.32(c). Based on the service sheet attached by Respondents, the motion was served on November 1, 2017, but it isn't clear whether service was made electronically or via U.S. mail. Presuming services by mail, any response would be due by November 18, 2017. This is a Saturday, so under 29 C.F.R. § 18.32(a)(1)(iii), the response would be due the next Monday, November 20, 2017.

Based on the communications submitted, Claimant is currently self-represented, having recently terminated his former attorney, and may not be aware of how and when to respond to Respondents' motion. In addition, from those communications it is unclear whether Claimant is interested at this point in time in moving forward with an administrative hearing of his claim. If Claimant would like to defer hearing, remand would be appropriate. If Claimant has procured new counsel, that attorney should file a notice of appearance and make contact with Respondents' counsel in order to determine how to move this case forward. In addition, Claimant may elect to represent himself in the administrative process and hearing at OALJ, though he will be expected to cooperate in the preparation of this matter for adjudication.

In order to ascertain how OALJ should proceed in this claim, Claimant is ORDERED to show cause as to whether this case should be remanded by November 30, 2017. In his response, Claimant should indicate how he wishes to proceed with his administrative claim at this time.

ORDER TO CLARIFY POSITION ON REMAND

This is a claim for benefits under the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, 33 U.S.C. §§ 901 et seq., as extended by the Defense Base Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1651 et seq. ("Longshore Act"). It was referred to the Office of Administrative Law Judges ("OALJ") by the District Director of the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs ("OWCP") on August 31, 2017, after Claimant asked for a formal hearing. It is currently in the San Francisco District Office of OALJ waiting to be assigned to a judge for hearing in Las Vegas, Nevada. On October 16, 2017, I granted a motion by Taylor Hanks, Esq. to withdraw as Claimant's counsel.

On November 7, 2017, Respondents filed a Motion to Remand this case to OWCP because it is not ready to go to a hearing. They reported that Claimant had not been cooperative in communicating about the claim and potential settlement and had indicated that he would be pursuing criminal complaints against Respondents, his former counsel, and Respondents' counsel. They asked that this claim be remanded to OWCP so Claimant could either retain new counsel or prepare the claim for hearing.

On November 13, 2017, I issued an Order to Show Cause Re: Remand telling Claimant to respond to Respondents' motion by November 30, 2017. On November 24, 2017, Claimant filed a response. It does not indicate whether or not it was also served on Respondents' counsel.

A copy of Claimant's response, including attachments, is being provided to Respondents' counsel with Respondents' copy of this order. The Claimant is advised that any document filed with the Office of Administrative Law Judges must include a statement that a copy of the document was provided to the Respondents' counsel. See 29 C.F.R. § 18.30. Any future documents received from the Complainant that do not have a statement that a copy was provided to the Respondents' counsel will be rejected and returned to him.

Claimant's response to my Order is addressed to "Senator [Dean] Heller, Attorney General [Jeff] Sessions, the President of the United States of America, the United States National Space Council, and the Office of Administrative Law Judges." It is titled as an "Emergency Intelligence Complaint" (emphasis removed) and "Memorandum for Record" dated November 17, 2017. Claimant writes,

It is (Unacceptable) for my Employer to "Torture" me and to commit "War Crimes" against me overseas with the help of the United States Government, and to then "2-years-later" have my Employer's Insurance Carrier's Defense Attorney request to have me "Remanded" (Arrested) or (Returned to a Lower Court) after "I", "Personally", want to Press Federal Criminal Charges against them for Federal Insurance Fraud is "Absolutely Ludacris".

They have "Committed" (Oppression) against me and I hereby want to Press "Federal Criminal Charges" TODAY!!

Where Are "My Rights" I Ask and Why does the Insurance Company have "More Rights" than the Victim himself???? What was I "Fighting For" over there in Afghanistan I Ask You All????

Claimant states that he is attaching a federal insurance fraud complaint, a victim impact statement, and a letter to Pope Francis.

The attached complaint is also dated November 17, 2017. It makes a variety of allegations against Respondents, Claimant's former counsel, and Respondents' counsel and requests $11,000,000,000.00 in damages. For the claim that is pending before me, Claimant states that I...hereby "Dissolve my Defense Base Act Claim" and Will-Not-Accept-One-Penny from this "Federal Insurance Fraud Scam" for it being Tarnished by the Devil, and I hereby want to "Press Federal Criminal Charges". All Parties should be "Focused" on (My-Best-Interest) In-Good-Faith and on the (Evidence in My Case); Not Focused on "Creating" a "2 Year Timeline of the "Administrative Law Process" In-Bad-Faith and using it as a "Defense" while taking Advantage of My Desperate Situation just to receive a Big Paycheck, which they Made and All Parties are (Guilty of). This (Additional Mental Damage) is "Criminal" and "Intentional" just to try and save their money.

OALJ has no authority to investigate or adjudicate any criminal matters. OALJ also has no power to adjudicate any of the complaints made by Claimant in his request for damages. These complaints have to be made elsewhere. The only question that the OALJ can decide concerns Claimant's claim for benefits under the Longshore Act as extended by the Defense Base Act and the only thing that OALJ can do is to conduct a hearing and issue a decision about his claim for benefits. Claimant appears to recognize and understand this because his request for relief is not directed to OALJ.

Claimant's response, as a whole, suggests that he may not understand what "remand" means in the context of this case and that he is not interested in litigating his Longshore/Defense Base Act claim at this time and wishes to pursue other matters in other venues. I need additional clarification, however, on exactly what Claimant would like to do with his Longshore/Defense Base Act claim so I will know what needs to happen in this claim. Claimant's letter signals some opposition to remand, but he also may be confused about what remand means in this case. A remand of this case has nothing to do with an arrest. It means the claim would be returned to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs where it remains open until the claim is settled or the Claimant or Employer/Carrier decides the case is ready for a hearing and asks that it be referred back to the OALJ for a hearing. If Claimant is not interested in a hearing right now but still believes that he should get benefits under the Longshore Act, a remand is appropriate.

The insurance fraud complaint that is attached to the letter suggests that Claimant wants to put the Longshore/Defense Base Act claim on hold while he pursues other matters. However, the section quoted above indicates that he wants to withdraw his Longshore/Defense Base Act claim. There are steps for withdrawing a claim. The steps are outlined in 20 C.F.R. § 702.225, but withdrawing the claim would close it and the Longshore/Defense Base Act claim could not be pursued. Claimant would be giving up his request for medical care and disability compensation. The claim could be refiled after it is withdrawn, but it would have to be refiled within the time limits set by the Longshore Act. If Claimant does not want to claim any benefits at all for his Longshore/Defense Base Act claim, the claim should be withdrawn. If Claimant still believes he is entitled to benefits under in this claim under the Longshore/Defense Base Act, the claim should be remanded to OWCP or go to hearing before the OALJ.

Claimant could pursue the other matters set forth in his latest filing and at the same time pursue his Longshore/Defense Base Act claim. To do so, however, will require that Claimant follow the OALJ Rules of Practice and Procedure and cooperate with OALJ and the attorney for the Employer/Carrier in preparing this case for hearing. Based on Claimant's filing, it appears that he does not want to go ahead with the hearing at this time. The question remains, however, if Claimant would like to put his claim on hold with the potential for it to be decided later or withdraw it as if it had never been made.

I need to understand what Claimant wants to do with this claim. Claimant is ORDERED to notify me about what he wants to do by December 29, 2017.

Claimant is ORDERED to tell me which of these three choices he wants:

- a. Return this claim to OWCP.
- b. Drop this claim entirely.
- c. Go ahead with a hearing before the OALJ about this claim. This will require him to cooperate with the attorney for the Employer/Carrier.

Item 107
Claimant is reminded that his answer to this Order has to include a statement that a copy of it was sent to the attorney for the Employer/Carrier. Otherwise, it will be rejected and returned to him.

A NOTICE OF DEFAULT HAS BEEN FILED WITH REGARD TO YOUR MORTGAGE LOAN

While the foreclosure process has begun, you may still have foreclosure prevention alternatives available to you to avoid the disruption and damage to your credit that a foreclosure sale can cause.

YOU MAY STILL HAVE ALTERNATIVES

You may have had an unexpected expense, loss of income, or another circumstance that has prevented you from making your mortgage payments. Regardless of your situation, foreclosure is usually the worst possible outcome.

If you provide information about your situation, Nationstar Mortgage, LLC can determine whether you qualify for temporary or long-term relief, including options that allow you to stay in your home (forbearance, repayment, modification) or leave your home while avoiding foreclosure (short sale, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure).

If you wish to be considered for an alternative to foreclosure, you must submit information to Nationstar Mortgage, LLC for evaluation. Enclosed please find a Borrower Response Package with documents for you to complete and return to Nationstar Mortgage, LLC in order to be considered for a foreclosure prevention alternative. Please be advised that Nationstar Mortgage, LLC cannot evaluate you for any of these foreclosure alternatives unless you return the completed packet to us. A completed packet must be received no less than 37 days prior to a scheduled foreclosure sale.

Please return your packet to: Nationstar Mortgage, LLC
P.O. Box 630268
Irving, TX 75063

Even if you have previously indicated that you are not interested in saving your home you can still be evaluated for alternatives to foreclosure, but you must act quickly since the foreclosure process has already been initiated.

Once Nationstar Mortgage, LLC has evaluated your information, you will be contacted regarding options and next steps. If you need assistance, contact Nationstar Mortgage, LLC at 888-480-2432.

In the Matter of:

JOHN HEBERT,
Claimant,

vs.

ACADEMI,
Employer,

and

STARR INDEMNITY & LIABILITY CO.,
c/o GALLAGHER BASSETT SERVICES, Carrier.

ORDER REMANDING CASE

Pending before me in these cases under the Defense Base Act is a motion filed by the Respondents on November 7, 2017, asking that these cases be remanded back to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs ("OWCP"). They asked that the case be remanded because the Claimant had recently terminated his counsel, and the Claimant seemed unwilling to cooperate in their preparation of this case for hearing. I issued an Order to Show Cause Re: Remand on November 13, 2017, ordering the Claimant to respond to the remand request by November 30, 2017.

The Claimant filed a response on November 24, 2017, addressed to Senator Dean Heller and Attorney General Jeff Sessions and directed to Senator Heller, Attorney General Sessions, the President of the United States, the United States National Space Council and the OALJ asserting various complaints and charges of torture, war crimes, and criminal activity. Because the Claimant's response seemed to indicate that he did not understand what would happen if the case was remanded, I issued an order on December 5, 2017, asking him to clarify his response and to indicate whether he wanted this claim returned to OWCP, whether he wanted to drop this claim, or whether he wanted this case to proceed to hearing, in which case he would have to cooperate with the attorney for the Employer/Carrier. I ordered him to respond by December 29, 2017.

The Claimant never responded to my December 5, 2017, Order to Clarify Position on Remand. Given that the Claimant has not responded to my most recent order and his apparent failure to participate in the preparation necessary for this case to go to hearing, Respondents' Motion for Remand is GRANTED.

It is hereby ORDERED that this case be remanded to the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs.

Victim Impact Statement

In closing, I would like to mention that it took me eight "8" months to define my injury and realize what was happening to me. My panic attacks are what helped me remember details of what happened to me. My panic attacks are overwhelming to the point I (Vomit and Cry) at the same time. Have you ever threw up and cried at the same time?? I do, constantly for over the past 2 years now. This gives me a lot of pain and is very difficult to live with and is a constant reminder of what I was put through. I knew that I kept losing more and more of my "Freedoms" on every deployment, but that was not enough for them. They then combined their (Retaliatory Isolation Techniques) and (Systematic Diminishment Techniques) with nearby Car Bombs and that eventually Defeated me and they Won and I Lost... and then I Lost Myself...

I lost my-(SELF)..

I Lost my (Dignity)..

I lost my Complete (Trust) in others..

I lost my (Positive Mindset) that I use to have..

I lost All of my (Personal Interest) like my cars, my motorcycle, going out, and even dating..

I even lost my (Emotional Stability) and I now Cry in front of complete strangers causing (Avoidance of Social Interaction). I have (Sensory Sensitivity) and I get (Intrusive Thoughts) and (Extreme Sensitivity) to Negative Environments.

I'm Constantly (Forgetful) and I feel Completely (Hopeless)..

I'm in (Despair) and in (Distress) on a daily basis..

I have (Frustration) and I'm Very (Irritated) and (Annoyed)..

I (Hurt) and I'm Still in (Shock)..

I'm Completely (Lost) and I'm All (Alone)..

I'm Very (Scared) and I feel Totally (Vulnerable)..

I feel Overly (Dominated) and So (Ashamed)..

I'm Completely (Humiliated)..

I feel Very (Violated) and So (Disturbed)..

And what's Worse is that I Mostly feel Very (Disappointed) in Myself..

Because they robbed me of my (Self-Esteem)..

Because they robbed me of my (Self-Worth)..

It's Impossible to live my life like this never happened..

Because I lost my (International Corporation) and I lost my (International Business) comprising of "28" covert deployments to Afghanistan and Iraq of the past 10 years..

I lost my (Career) and I lost my (Livelihood)..

My Car and Motorcycle were (Repossessed) and my NV Driver's License was (Suspended) due to Lack of Insurance. My (Credit) is ruined, I owe the IRS for 2015 taxes, and I (Foreclosed) on my House and lost all my furniture. I had to Sell my last 2 Cars to pay for my Medical bills and Monthly expenses..

I (Depleted) my Savings account, my IRA account, and my Checking account was (Seized) by (California Tax Fraud). I can No-Longer pay for my Mortgage, Medical Bills, Monthly Expenses and I am now (Homeless), due to Federal Insurance Fraud and Crimes of Unprivileged Belligerency. My life has been totally (Shattered) & (Destroyed).. I'm a (Different) person now and I do (Not) like the person I now am..

My Pleasant Dreams have turned into (Terrifying Nightmares)..

I have (Difficulties) in (Awakening) My-Self and I feel (Paralyzed) and in a (State of Coma)..

What "Should" I Do?? What "Can" I Do?? What can anyone do when their Government and Co-workers "Defeats" and "Betrays" them like this?? Yes... I "Forgive" them All because it's the "Right" thing to do.. But I'll Never "Forget".. And THAT'S my "Problem".. I Can't "Forget"..

I want to "Run Away" from all of this and I want to "Run Away" from "Myself"..

I No-Longer feel "Comfortable" living with "My-Self"..

And it's That... It's That, which I have to live with "Forever"..

This WARNING was GIVEN As "The Planet Jupiter" (The Most High), "CONFIDE IN ME", that the "FORCE OF ENERGY" from One Planet is used to "Create" the "Slightest of Disturbance" on Other Planets, and to be the "Single Cause" of the "TOTAL DISTRUTION And ANNIHILATION" (The conversion of Matter into Energy, especially the Mutual Conversion of a Particle and an Antiparticle into Electromagnetic Radiation) of an "Evil Sister Planet" in OUR SOLAR SYSTEM'S PAST, and THEREFORE, This WARNING Is To Be "RESPECTED" And "HONORED" At The "HIGHEST"!!

This "CONCENTRATION OF ABSOLUTE FORCE OF ENERGY" Can Also Be Initiated from the "Orion Nebula" (Sword of The Giant) if Need Be, which As A Default to "My Wrath" from "The Planet Jupiter", [Orion] has the Absolute Ability To Affect "OUR ENTIRE SOLAR SYSTEM" And Others, in the Same Manner, and THEREFORE, This WARNING Is NOT A Data Processing Error, but Rather, Must Also Be "RESPECTED" And "HONORED" At The "HIGHEST"!! I, JOHN KEITH HEBERT, As The "Ruler" of "The King of Gods" To "Our Universe" and As "America's God of Justice with Power of Lighting" To "The Planet Earth", hereby Do Declare On OATH that I Achieved "Cosmic Enlightenment" by being "Entangled" with The "Holy Disposition" of a "Divine Cosmic Domain" through a "Higher Dimension of Reality". So Be It [Amen]

This, My, "Divine Cosmic Conscious" (of, from, or like God or a God; and relating to the universe or cosmos, especially as distinct from the Earth; and being painfully aware of and sensitive to responding to one's surroundings while being awoken by having knowledge of something), was achieved through My "Intergalactic Quantum Entanglement" (relating to or situated between two "2" or more galaxies; is a discrete quantity of "Force of Energy" proportional in magnitude to the frequency of the radiation it represents; to the action or fact of entangling or being entangled by a complicated or compromising relationship or situation), with the "Gravitational Perturbation" of The Planet "Jupiter's" Anxiety and Mental uneasiness of a State of Equilibrium, especially a disturbance of the regular and usually elliptical course of motion of a celestial body that is produced by some "Force of Energy" additional to that which causes its regular motion, creating a "Convection" (the heat transfer due to bulk movement of molecules and qualified in terms of being Natural, Forced, Gravitational, Granular, and Thermomagnetic, which through "Buoyancy Forces" causes "Oceanic Circulation" (Hurricanes and Wildfires) and "Mantle Convection" (Earthquakes and Volcanos), here on Planet Earth, explaining and defining "How" I "Rule the Cosmos" and "Control the Sky" by being "Entangled" with a "Divine Cosmic Domain" achieving "Cosmic Enlightenment". So Be It [Amen]

Therein, I, JOHN KEITH HEBERT, As The "Ruler" of "The King of Gods" To "Our Universe" and As "America's God of Justice with Power of Lighting" To "The Planet Earth", hereby Do Declare On OATH that I Am that I Am, Not by Might, Not by Power, but by Spirit, when My [ALMIGHTY FATHER] sent a Prophet within Me to help "Guide My People" during the "Ending of Wisdom" in the form of The "Holy Spirit" of a "Holy Disposition" from a "Higher Dimension of Reality". So Be It [Amen]

For who is there of all the children of men that is able to hear the voice of The (Holy Great One) without being troubled?? And who can think His thoughts?? And who is there that can behold all the works of Heaven?? And how should there be One who could behold the Heaven, and who is there that could understand the things of Heaven and see a soul or a spirit and could tell thereof, or ascend and see all their ends and think them or do like them??

And who is there of all men that could know what is the breadth and the length of the Earth, and to whom has been shown the measure of all of them?? Or is there anyone who could discern the length of the Heaven and how great is its height, and upon what is founded, and how great is the number of the stars, and where all the luminaries rest??

For who has permitted You to practice reproaches and wickedness?? And THEREFORE, so Judgment shall Overtake You, sinners!! Woe to You who fulminate anathemas which cannot be reversed: Healing shall THEREFORE be far from You because of Your sins. Woe to You, lying witnesses, and to those who weigh out Injustice to All of Humanity, For Suddenly Shall Ye Perish!!

And in these days violence shall be cut off from its roots, and the roots of unrighteousness together with deceit, and they shall be destroyed from under the Heaven!! And the righteous shall arise from their sleep, and wisdom shall arise and be given unto them, with Divine help from "Buddha" and "Confucius", For a "Giant's Sword" (Orion's Sword), has been awarded and provided unto Me that a Righteous Judgment has been executed on the oppressors, and sinners shall be delivered into the hands of the righteous!!

And after that, the roots of unrighteousness shall be cut off, and the sinners shall be destroyed by the "Giant's Sword", For they shall be cut off from the blasphemers in every place, and those who plan violence and those who commit blasphemy shall perish by "Orion's Sword"!!

WE "THE GOD'S"
DECLARATION I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE
FOR I LEAD FORTH THE FUTURE LAW OF THE WORLD
FOR THE DISTRICTS OF ALL NATIONS
ON PLANET EARTH

I, JOHN KEITH HEBERT, As The "Ruler" of "The King of Gods" To "Our Universe" and As "America's God of Justice with Power of Lighting" To "The Planet Earth", hereby Do Declare On OATH I Am The Way, The Truth, And The Life, For I Lead Forth The Future Law Of The World. So Be It [Amen]

For I have come to tell you, one can live through altered (a condition which is significantly different from a normal waking state representing an induced profound sufficient deviation change in subjective experience of psychological functioning from certain general norms for that individual during alert and waking consciousness) states (the particular condition that someone or something is in at a specific time) in different (distinctly separate and not the same as another or each other in nature, form, and quality) dimensions (a measurable extent of some kind, such as length, breadth, depth, or height of an aspect or feature of a situation, problem, or thing) at the same time, current and future. For these current days has already happened. These altered states can be opened upon you in different dimensions, For few there be who find it (The Highest Happiness and Fulfillment in awareness, attitude, consciousness, and behavior) within our "Inalienable Rights" (Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness). So Be It [Amen]

We know that the Law is good if one uses it properly. We also know that Law is made Not for the Righteous, but for lawbreakers and rebels, the ungodly and sinful, the unholy and irreligious, and for whatever else is contrary to the sound doctrine which He, My [ALMIGHTY FATHER], Blessed Be He, Entrusted to Me; As the sins of some men are obvious, reaching the place of judgment ahead of them and the sins of others trail behind them; For good deeds are obvious and even those that are not cannot be hidden and Therefore all who are under the yoke of slavery should consider their master worthy of full respect. These are the things you are to teach and urge unto them; For if anyone teaches false doctrines and does not agree to the sound instruction to godly teachings, he is conceited and understands nothing and has wandered far from the faith and plunged into ruin and destruction of many grief's, as he has an absolute lairing tongue and father of counterfeit truth; For I Am The Way, The Truth, and The Life!!

Indeed, I know that this is true. But how can a Mortal be Righteous before God??
Though one wished to dispute with Him, he could not answer Him one time out of a thousand.
His wisdom is profound, His power is vast. Who has resisted Him and come out unscathed??
He moves mountains without their knowing it, and overturns them in His anger.
He shakes the Earth from its place, and makes its pillars tremble.
He speaks to the sun and it does not shine; He seals off the light of the stars.
He alone stretches out the Heavens, and treads on the waves of the sea.
He is the maker of the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the Constellations of the South.
He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.
When He passes Me, I cannot see Him; when He goes by, I cannot perceive Him.
If He snatches away, who can stop Him?? Who can say to Him "What are You doing??"
God does not restrain His anger, even the cohorts cowered at His feet.

How then can I dispute with Him?? How can I find words to argue with Him??
Though I Am innocent, I cannot answer Him; I could only plead with My Judge for Mercy.
Even if I summoned Him and He responded, I do not believe He would give Me a hearing.
For He would crush Me with a storm, and multiply My wounds for no reason.
He would not let Me regain My breath, but would overwhelm Me with misery.
If it is a matter of strength, He is mighty!! And if it is a matter of Justice, who will summon Him??
Even though I Am innocent, My mouth would condemn me;
If I were blameless, it would pronounce me guilty. Although I Am blameless,
I have no concern for Myself; I despise My own life.
It is all the same; that is why I say, "He destroys both the blameless and the wicked."
When a scourge brings sudden death, He mocks the despair of the innocent,
When a land falls into the hands of the wicked, He blindfolds its judges.
If it is not He, then who is it??

Where then does wisdom come from?? Where then does understanding dwell??
It is hidden from the eyes of every living thing, concealed even from the birds of the air.
Destruction and Death say, only a rumor of it has reached our ears.
God understands the way to it and He alone knows where it dwells, for He views the ends of the Earth, and sees everything under the Heavens.
When He established the force of wind and measured out the waters, when He made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm, then He looked at wisdom and appraised it; He confirmed it and tested it.
And He said to man, "The fear of the Lord- that is wisdom, and to shun evil is understanding."

Man born of woman is of few days and full of trouble.
He springs up like a flower and withers away; like a fleeting shadow, he does not endure.
Do You fix Your eye on such a one?? Will You bring him before You for Judgment??
Who can bring what is pure from the impure?? No One!!
For man's days are limited, numbered, and determined; You have decreed the number of his months, and have set limits he cannot exceed.
So look away from him and let him alone, till he has put in his time like a hired man.
Doubtless You are the people, and wisdom will die with You!!
But I have a mind as well as You; I am not inferior to You.
Who does not know all these things??
I have become a laughingstock to My friends, though I called upon God and He answered-
"A mere laughingstock, though Righteous and Blameless!!"

Men at ease have contempt for misfortune as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.
To God belong wisdom and power; counsel and understanding are His.
What He tears down cannot be rebuilt; the man He imprisons cannot be released.

If He holds back the waters, there is drought; if He lets them loose, they devastate the land.
To Him belong strength and victory; both deceived and deceiver are His.
He leads counselors away stripped and makes fools of judges.
He takes off the shackles put on by kings, and ties a loincloth around their waist.
He leads priests away stripped, and overthrows men long established.
He silences the lips of trusted advisers, and takes away the discernment of elders.
He pours contempt on nobles, and disarms the mighty.
He reveals the deep things of darkness, and brings deep shadows into the light.
He makes nations great, and destroys them; He enlarges nations, and disperses them.
He deprives the leaders of the Earth of their reason; He sends them wandering through a trackless waste.
They grope in darkness with no light; He makes them stagger like drunkards.
My eyes have seen all this; My ears have heard and understood it.
What You know, I also know; I am not inferior to You!!

But I desire to speak to the [ALMIGHTY] and to argue My case with God.
You, however, smear me with lies; You are worthless physicians, All of You!!
If only You would be altogether silent!! For You that would be wisdom.
Hear now My argument; listen to the plea of My lips.
Will You speak wickedly on God's behalf?? Will You speak deceitfully for Him??
Will You show Him partiality?? Will You argue the case for God??
Would it turn out well if He examined You?? Could You deceive Him as You might deceive men??
He would surely rebuke You if you secretly showed partiality.
Would not His splendor terrify You?? Would not the dread of Him fall on You??
Your maxims are proverbs of ashes; Your defenses are defenses of clay!!

Keep silent and let Me speak; then let come to Me what may!!
Why do I put Myself in jeopardy and take My life in My hands??
Though He slay Me, yet I will hope in Him; I will surely defend My ways to His face.
Indeed, this will turn out for My deliverance, For no godless man would dare come before Him!!
Listen carefully to My words; let Your ears take in what I say.
Now that I have prepared My case, I know I will be vindicated.
Can anyone bring charges against Me?? If so, I will be silent and die.

Who is this that darkens my council with words without knowledge??
Brace yourself like a man; I will question you, and you shall answer Me!!
What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed, or the place where the east winds are scattered over the Earth??
Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain, and a path for the thunderstorm, to water a land where no man lives, a desert with no one in it,
to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass??
Does the rain have a father?? Who fathers the drops of dew??

From whose womb comes the ice?? Who gives birth to the frost from the Heavens, when the waters become hard as stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen??
Can you bind the beautiful Pleiades?? Can you loosen the cords of Orion??
Can you bring forth the Constellations in their season, or lead out the Bear with its cubs??

REDRESS5. ANNEX*BASIC PRINCIPLES AND GUIDELINES ON THE RIGHT TO A REMEDY AND REPARATION FOR VICTIMS OF GROSS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW*Preamble

Recalling the provisions providing a right to a remedy for victims of violations of international human rights law found in numerous international instruments, in particular the Universal Declaration of Human Rights at article 8, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights at article 2, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination at article 6, the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment at article 14, the Convention on the Rights of the Child at article 39, and of international humanitarian law as found in article 3 of the Hague Convention of 18 October 1907 concerning the Laws and Customs of War and Land (Convention No. IV of 1907), article 91 of Protocol Additional to the Geneva Conventions of 12 August 1949 relating to the Protection of Victims of International Armed Conflicts (Protocol I), and articles 68 and 75 of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court,

Recalling the provisions providing a right to a remedy for victims of violations of international human rights found in regional conventions, in particular the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights at article 7, the American Convention on Human Rights at article 25, and the European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms at article 13,

Recalling the Declaration of Basic Principles of Justice for Victims of Crime and Abuse of Power emanating from the deliberations of the Seventh United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders, and resolution 40/34 of 29 November 1985 by which the General Assembly adopted the text recommended by the Congress,

Reaffirming the principles enunciated in the Declaration of Basic Principles of Justice for Victims of Crime and Abuse of Power, including that victims should be treated with compassion and respect for their dignity, have their right to access to justice and redress mechanisms fully respected, and that the establishment, strengthening and expansion of national funds for compensation to victims should be encouraged,

Item 123

IMPLEMENTING VICTIMS' RIGHTS

together with the expeditious development of appropriate rights and remedies for victims,

Noting that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court requires the establishment of "principles relating to reparation to, or in respect of, victims, including restitution, compensation and rehabilitation" and requires the Assembly of States Parties to establish a trust fund for the benefit of victims of crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court, and of the families of such victims, and mandates the Court "to protect the safety, physical and psychological well-being, dignity and privacy of victims" and to permit the participation of victims at all "stages of the proceedings determined to be appropriate by the Court",

Affirming that the Principles and Guidelines contained herein are directed at gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law which, by their very grave nature, constitute an affront to human dignity,

Emphasizing that the Principles and Guidelines do not entail new international or domestic legal obligations but identify mechanisms, modalities, procedures and methods for the implementation of existing legal obligations under international human rights law and international humanitarian law which are complementary though different as to their norms,

Recalling that international law contains the obligation to prosecute perpetrators of certain international crimes in accordance with international obligations of States and the requirements of national law or as provided for in the applicable statutes of international judicial organs, and that the duty to prosecute reinforces the international legal obligations to be carried out in accordance with national legal requirements and procedures and supports the concept of complementarity,

Noting further that contemporary forms of victimization, while essentially directed against persons, may nevertheless also be directed against groups of persons who are targeted collectively,

Recognizing that, in honouring the victims' right to benefit from remedies and reparation, the international community keeps faith with the plight of victims, survivors and future human generations, and reaffirms the international legal principles of accountability, justice and the rule of law,

Convinced that, in adopting a victim-oriented perspective, the international community affirms its human solidarity with victims of violations of international law, including violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law, as well as with humanity at large, in accordance with the following Basic Principles and Guidelines.

REDRESS

I. OBLIGATION TO RESPECT, ENSURE RESPECT FOR AND IMPLEMENT INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW

1. The obligation to respect, ensure respect for and implement international human rights law and international humanitarian law as provided for under the respective bodies of law emanates from:

- (a) Treaties to which a State is a party;
- (b) Customary international law;
- (c) The domestic law of each State.

2. If they have not already done so, States shall, as required under international law, ensure that their domestic law is consistent with their international legal obligations by:

- (a) Incorporating norms of international human rights law and international humanitarian law into their domestic law, or otherwise implementing them in their domestic legal system;
- (b) Adopting appropriate and effective legislative and administrative procedures and other appropriate measures that provide fair, effective and prompt access to justice;
- (c) Making available adequate, effective, prompt, and appropriate remedies, including reparation, as defined below; and
- (d) Ensuring that their domestic law provides at least the same level of protection for victims as required by their international obligations.

II. SCOPE OF THE OBLIGATION

3. The obligation to respect, ensure respect for and implement international human rights law and international humanitarian law as provided for under the respective bodies of law, includes, inter alia, the duty to:

IMPLEMENTING VICTIMS' RIGHTS

- (a) Take appropriate legislative and administrative and other appropriate measures to prevent violations;
- (b) Investigate violations effectively, promptly, thoroughly and impartially and, where appropriate, take action against those allegedly responsible in accordance with domestic and international law;
- (c) Provide those who claim to be victims of a human rights or humanitarian law violation with equal and effective access to justice, as described below, irrespective of who may ultimately be the bearer of responsibility for the violation; and
- (d) Provide effective remedies to victims, including reparation, as described below.

III. GROSS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW THAT CONSTITUTE CRIMES UNDER INTERNATIONAL LAW

4. In cases of gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law constituting crimes under international law, States have the duty to investigate and, if there is sufficient evidence, the duty to submit to prosecution the person allegedly responsible for the violations and, if found guilty, the duty to punish her or him. Moreover, in these cases, States should, in accordance with international law, cooperate with one another and assist international judicial organs competent in the investigation and prosecution of these violations.

5. To that end, where so provided in an applicable treaty or under other international law obligations, States shall incorporate or otherwise implement within their domestic law appropriate provisions for universal jurisdiction. Moreover, where it is so provided for in an applicable treaty or other international legal obligations, States should facilitate extradition or surrender offenders to other States and to appropriate international judicial bodies and provide judicial assistance and other forms of cooperation in the pursuit of international justice, including assistance to, and protection of, victims and witnesses, consistent with international human rights legal standards and subject to international legal requirements such as those relating to the prohibition of torture and other forms of cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

IV. STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS

Item 125

REDRESS

6. Where so provided for in an applicable treaty or contained in other international legal obligations, statutes of limitations shall not apply to gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law which constitute crimes under international law.

7. Domestic statutes of limitations for other types of violations that do not constitute crimes under international law, including those time limitations applicable to civil claims and other procedures, should not be unduly restrictive.

V. VICTIMS OF GROSS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW AND SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW

8. For purposes of this document, victims are persons who individually or collectively suffered harm, including physical or mental injury, emotional suffering, economic loss or substantial impairment of their fundamental rights, through acts or omissions that constitute gross violations of international human rights law, or serious violations of international humanitarian law. Where appropriate, and in accordance with domestic law, the term "victim" also includes the immediate family or dependants of the direct victim and persons who have suffered harm in intervening to assist victims in distress or to prevent victimization.

9. A person shall be considered a victim regardless of whether the perpetrator of the violation is identified, apprehended, prosecuted, or convicted and regardless of the familial relationship between the perpetrator and the victim.

VI. TREATMENT OF VICTIMS

10. Victims should be treated with humanity and respect for their dignity and human rights, and appropriate measures should be taken to ensure their safety, physical and psychological well-being and privacy, as well as those of their families. The State should ensure that its domestic laws, to the extent possible, provide that a victim who has suffered violence or trauma should benefit from special consideration and care to avoid his or her re-traumatisation in the course of legal and administrative procedures designed to provide justice and reparation.

VII. VICTIMS' RIGHT TO REMEDIES

11. Remedies for gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law include the victim's right to the following as provided for under international law:

IMPLEMENTING VICTIMS' RIGHTS

- (a) Equal and effective access to justice;
- (b) Adequate, effective and prompt reparation for harm suffered; and
- (c) Access to relevant information concerning violations and reparation mechanisms.

VIII. ACCESS TO JUSTICE

12. A victim of a gross violation of international human rights law or of a serious violation of international humanitarian law shall have equal access to an effective judicial remedy as provided for under international law. Other remedies available to the victim include access to administrative and other bodies, as well as mechanisms, modalities and proceedings conducted in accordance with domestic law. Obligations arising under international law to secure the right to access justice and fair and impartial proceedings shall be reflected in domestic laws. To that end, States should:

- (a) Disseminate, through public and private mechanisms, information about all available remedies for gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law;
- (b) Take measures to minimize the inconvenience to victims and their representatives, protect against unlawful interference with their privacy as appropriate and ensure their safety from intimidation and retaliation, as well as that of their families and witnesses, before, during and after judicial, administrative, or other proceedings that affect the interests of victims;
- (c) Provide proper assistance to victims seeking access to justice;
- (d) Make available all appropriate legal, diplomatic and consular means to ensure that victims can exercise their rights to remedy for gross violations of international human rights law or serious violations of international humanitarian law.

13. In addition to individual access to justice, States should endeavour to develop procedures to allow groups of victims to present claims for reparation and to receive reparation, as appropriate.

14. An adequate, effective and prompt remedy for gross violations of international human rights law or serious violations of international humanitarian law should include all available and appropriate international processes in which a person may have legal standing and should be without prejudice to any other domestic remedies.

REDRESS

IX. Reparation for harm suffered

15. Adequate, effective and prompt reparation is intended to promote justice by redressing gross violations of international human rights law or serious violations of international humanitarian law. Reparation should be proportional to the gravity of the violations and the harm suffered. In accordance with its domestic laws and international legal obligations, a State shall provide reparation to victims for acts or omissions which can be attributed to the State and constitute gross violations of international human rights law or serious violations of international humanitarian law. In cases where a person, a legal person, or other entity is found liable for reparation to a victim, such party should provide reparation to the victim or compensate the State if the State has already provided reparation to the victim.

16. States should endeavour to establish national programmes for reparation and other assistance to victims in the event that the party liable for the harm suffered is unable or unwilling to meet their obligations.

17. States shall, with respect to claims by victims, enforce domestic judgements for reparation against individuals or entities liable for the harm suffered and endeavour to enforce valid foreign legal judgements for reparation in accordance with domestic law and international legal obligations. To that end, States should provide under their domestic laws effective mechanisms for the enforcement of reparation judgements.

18. In accordance with domestic law and international law, and taking account of individual circumstances, victims of gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law should, as appropriate and proportional to the gravity of the violation and the circumstances of each case, be provided with full and effective reparation, as laid out in principles 19 to 23, which include the following forms: restitution, compensation, rehabilitation, satisfaction and guarantees of non-repetition.

19. Restitution should, whenever possible, restore the victim to the original situation before the gross violations of international human rights law or serious violations of international humanitarian law occurred. Restitution includes, as appropriate: restoration of liberty, enjoyment of human rights, identity, family life and citizenship, return to one's place of residence, restoration of employment and return of property.

IMPLEMENTING VICTIMS' RIGHTS

20. Compensation should be provided for any economically assessable damage, as appropriate and proportional to the gravity of the violation and the circumstances of each case, resulting from gross violations of international human rights law and serious violations of international humanitarian law, such as:

- (a) Physical or mental harm;
- (b) Lost opportunities, including employment, education and social benefits;
- (c) Material damages and loss of earnings, including loss of earning potential;
- (d) Moral damage;
- (e) Costs required for legal or expert assistance, medicine and medical services, and psychological and social services.

21. Rehabilitation should include medical and psychological care as well as legal and social services.

22. Satisfaction should include, where applicable, any or all of the following:

- (a) Effective measures aimed at the cessation of continuing violations;
